

VICTIMS' COMMISSIONING

The PCC receives funding from the Ministry of Justice (MOJ) for the purposes of commissioning victims' services - including child sexual abuse, domestic abuse, and sexual violence. For 2025/26, we used MOJ and PCC funding to commission the following services for victims:

Location	Service Delivery	Service / Provider	Description	Funding until	Funding for 2025/26
Suffolk	All Crime Types	Norfolk & Suffolk Victim Care Service (NSVC)	Free and confidential support is available to all victims and witnesses of crime, regardless of police involvement. Services are offered to adults, children, and young people, including guidance through the Criminal Justice System. Jointly commissioned by the Norfolk and Suffolk PCCs the service accepts self-referrals, third party and police referrals with informed consent. The service was delivered by Victim Support until 30 September 2025 and included specialist support for standard-risk domestic abuse victims. The new contract commenced on 1 October 2025 and is delivered by Catch22. The contract is for an initial term of 3 years with an option to extend.	30.9.2028	£293,876
		The Restorative Justice (RJ) Hub	Restorative Justice (RJ) is a victim-focused process that facilitates communication between those harmed by crime or conflict and those responsible. It supports recovery and healing. The service is jointly commissioned by the Norfolk and Suffolk PCCs and managed by their Constabularies.	31.3.2026	£63,100
	Domestic Abuse (High Risk)	Independent Domestic Violence Advisory (IDVA) Service	The Suffolk IDVA Service supports high-risk domestic abuse victims from police report to court. Referrals come via police or MARAC. Specialist IDVAs assist in court and support young people, men, and minority communities. Managed by Leeway Domestic Violence and Abuse Services. This funding includes a contract variation to meet increased National Insurance Contributions within the service until September 2026..	30.9.2026	£704,878
	Domestic Abuse (Standard Risk)	Domestic Abuse: Next Steps	The DA Next Steps service accepts police referrals of standard risk domestic abuse cases in Suffolk. Managed by Anglia Care Trust, the service will commence on 1 October 2025 and run until 30 September 2027, with an option to extend if successful.	30.9.2027	£45,868
	DA	Anglia Care Trust	Money Advice Service for victims of DA. The service is accessed through the Domestic Abuse Outreach Service (DAOS), 24/7 Suffolk DA helpline or referral from other agencies/DA support organisations across Suffolk.	31.3.2026	£35,000
	DA/CYP	Leeway – Children and Young Persons Outreach (CAYPO) service	Funding supports a gap in services for CYP victims of DA. This service supports children of IDVA clients aged 5-15 who have experienced DA and are resident with a non-abusive parent with group & one to one work. Delivered by Leeway Domestic Violence and Abuse Services.	31.3.2026	£115,396
	DA/BAME	The Phoebe Centre (PHOEBE)	Support for women and children from Black, Asian, Minority Ethnic, and migrant communities in Suffolk, including safe housing, legal advice, counselling, and help with visas, education, employment, and English skills to promote independence and escape domestic abuse.	31.3.2026	£45,000
