

January 2022

Dear Candidate

Thank you for your interest in becoming the next Chief Finance Officer for the Police and Crime Commissioner for Suffolk. The vacancy arises as a result of the retirement of the current post-holder.

The Chief Finance Officer is a key role in ensuring that the policing service in Suffolk achieves value for money and secures the appropriate stewardship of public resources. I am looking for a Chief Finance Officer who will play a leading part in the operations of the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner and who will work with me to deliver my priorities. The successful candidate will be actively involved, using their professionalism and influence in respect of material matters affecting the organisation as a whole. They will be alert to all the opportunities available to maximise income generation from all potential financial sources.

Close working with the Constabulary is a key component of my office's work. The Chief Constable and myself are committed to delivering the best possible service for the county and the successful candidate will play a major part in helping to deliver that commitment.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Tim Passmore'.

Tim Passmore
Police and Crime Commissioner for Suffolk