

ORIGINATOR: DEPUTY CHIEF EXECUTIVE

DECISION NO. 21 - 2015

REASON FOR SUBMISSION: FOR DECISION

SUBMITTED TO: POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER (PCC)

SUBJECT: RAEDAN TRUST: PHOENIX COUNSELLING PRACTICE

SUMMARY:

1. In October 2014 the Police and Crime Commissioner assumed responsibility for the commissioning of victims' services. The PCC's key objective is to deliver effective victims' services to all Suffolk victims of crime according to their needs and regardless of their geographic location or any other factor.
2. This report seeks approval to award £25,000 to the Raedan Trust: Phoenix Counselling Practice to support vulnerable victims of crime. The purpose of the grant is to help the service satisfy increasing levels of unmet demand across Suffolk for counselling and build the capacity, capability and sustainability of the service to be able to continue to satisfy demand.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that:

1. The PCC approves a victims services grant of £25,000 to the Raedan Trust: Phoenix Counselling Practice to deliver counselling to support vulnerable victims of crime.

APPROVAL BY: PCC

The recommendation is agreed.

DETAILS OF THE SUBMISSION

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 In October 2014 the PCC assumed responsibility for the commissioning of victims' services. The PCC's key objective is to deliver effective victims' services to all victims of crime according to their needs and regardless of their geographic location or any other factor.
- 1.2 The Police and Crime Commissioner can commission services that:
- secure, or contribute to securing, crime and disorder reduction in Suffolk;
 - are intended to help victims or witnesses of, or other persons affected by, offences and anti-social behaviour.
- 1.3 This is in accordance with the provisions in the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
- 1.4 The PCC's victims commissioning approach will prioritise grant applications which:
- (a) fulfil the requirement to provide services for victims who are entitled to enhanced services, and
 - (b) address gaps in service provision.
- 1.5 Decisions on the commissioning of victims services are made on the basis of those which are considered to have the greatest likelihood of delivering the best possible outcome, in terms of helping victims to cope and recover from their experience, and the process will take into account the following:
- Innovation - an innovative approach to delivering victims' services;
 - Working in partnership/collaboration - working in partnership or collaboration with one or more additional victims' services providers;
 - Hard to reach/hear groups – services that are aimed at supporting victims from hard to reach/hear groups;
 - Gaps in services – services that will address an unmet need/gap in services.
- 1.6 The purpose of this report is to seek approval to award a local charity, Raedan Trust: Phoenix Counselling Practice, a grant of £25,000 to deliver counselling services to vulnerable victims of crime.

2 POLICE AND CRIME PLAN OBJECTIVES

- 2.1 Following the issue of the Police and Crime Plan 2013-2017, work has been on-going to ensure that the police and crime objectives will be achieved. The Police and Crime Plan sets out a clear commitment to providing services that meet the needs of victims of crime and vulnerable people.
- 2.2 Since the publication of the plan the PCC has engaged extensively to pursue the ambitions set out within the Plan, including the provision of high quality services to victims and vulnerable people.

3 RAEDAN TRUST: PHOENIX COUNSELLING PRACTICE

- 3.1 It is the mission of the Raedan Trust to provide counselling for the community using only fully qualified Counsellors and its charitable aim is "to relieve mental suffering caused by relationship breakdown, abuse, addiction, loss, disability, crime, trauma, violence, victimisation, prejudice and/or mental illness by the provision of counselling and related psychological services". It offers counselling for adults (16+ years), couples counselling and has children's counsellors (5+ years). Phoenix Counselling Practice is the service provided by the Raedan Trust.

3.2 The organisation has advised that the demand for services for victims of crime have increased significantly. In recognition of the need to meet increasing levels of unmet demand across Suffolk, and to build capacity, capability and sustainability to continue to satisfy demand, it is proposed to offer an award to the Raedan Trust: Phoenix Counselling Practice.

3.3 The grant will be used to deliver counselling services to vulnerable victims of crime.

4 OUTPUTS/OUTCOMES

4.1 The grant award will be made on the basis that monitoring information on the outputs and outcomes achieved from the use of this funding will be supplied to the PCC. This will enable the PCC to develop an understanding of the demand upon the service and the impact of the grant.

5 MISCELLANEOUS CONDITIONS OF AWARD

5.1 Full 'Conditions of Award' including conditions relating to transfer of funds, monitoring, and publicity and marketing are specified separately but include the following.

5.2 This award is a one-off award and is made on the condition that the grant recipient uses the grant for the purposes described. In the event that the grant is not used for these purposes the monies must be repaid to the PCC.

5.3 The grant recipient must comply with the conditions placed upon the PCC by the MoJ grant agreement which includes strict criteria regarding use of the grant and monitoring requirements.

5.4 The grant recipient must be able to evidence appropriate safeguarding procedures for those using their services and have due regard for the Local Children Safeguarding Board policies and guidance. The grant recipient must ensure that its services, policies, training, recruitment, vetting and referral processes appropriately safeguard children and vulnerable adults.

5.5 The grant recipient must be able to demonstrate that they are managing the grant in an efficient and effective manner, and are actively seeking to minimise bureaucracy and streamline processes in order to deliver the best possible outcomes.

5.6 The grant recipient will provide monitoring information on financial expenditure and outputs/outcomes to the PCC by 4 March 2015. Funds will be released once monitoring information has been received by the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner. No funds will be released until the monitoring information is provided.

5.7 The grant recipient must notify the PCC as soon as reasonably practicable if the organisation ceases operation, the project does not go ahead, or if an underspend is forecast. All underspends must be returned to the PCC.

5.8 By accepting the award from the PCC the grant recipient makes a commitment to acknowledge the PCC's support publicly and must acknowledge their funding from the PCC in all promotional work.

5.9 The grant recipient shall ensure that third party recipients have adequate insurance coverage (including but not limited to public liability insurance) in place and shall provide evidence of such insurance to the PCC on request.

5.10 The PCC accepts no liability to the grant recipient or any third party recipients for any costs, claims, damage or losses, however they are incurred, except for to the extent that they arise from personal injury or death which is caused by the PCC's negligence.

- 5.11 The grant recipient agrees to indemnify the PCC for any costs, claims, damages or losses which arise as a result of negligence by the grant recipient or out of any breach of any of the conditions of award.

6 FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

- 6.1 There are no financial implications over and above the grant of £25,000 for the financial year 2014/15.

7 OTHER IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS

- 7.1 There are no direct human resources implications arising from the consideration of this paper.

8 RECOMMENDATIONS

- 8.1 It is recommended that:

- 8.1.1 The PCC approves a grant of £25,000 to the Raedan Trust: Phoenix Counselling Practice to deliver counselling to support vulnerable victims of crime.
