

PCC Assessment of performance in relation to Complaint Reviews

The Elected Local Policing Bodies (Specified Information) (Amendment) Order 2021 was implemented in May 2021. Within this order the elected local policing body (Police and Crime Commissioner) is directed to provide an assessment of its performance in exercising its functions under paragraph 30(1)(b) of Schedule 3 to the Police Reform Act 2002 and which relates to complaint reviews.

Further details on the review function of the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner can be found by accessing the following link:

Number of Reviews

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner has completed 29 reviews within the period of 01/02/20 to 23/07/21.

Timeliness of complaint reviews

The average time taken to finalise a review, where the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPCC) was the relevant review body, is stated below.

- Mean: 19 Days
- Median: 18 Days
- Mode: 19 Days

Delegation and Review Functions

Details of the process and procedure in place for reviews handled by the OPCC, including delegation of functions and decision-making can be found by accessing the following link:

Quality Control

The review function is primarily undertaken by the Complaints Review Officer. However, at key points in the review process (including decision making over Validity and Outcome) discussions take place with the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), who is a solicitor and The Monitoring Officer, for quality assurance purposes and to help ensure the relevant review is being conducted in accordance with the legislation and statutory guidance.

Satisfaction

As stated, all reviews are considered in accordance with the legislation and statutory guidance. This may mean that some complainants do not receive the outcome they were expecting or desired. The OPCC endeavours to demonstrate sympathy and understanding to all complainants and ensure any decisions made in respect of a review are explained and documented in a clear and concise way.

Review Outcomes

For the period of 01/02/20 – 23/07/21 the OPCC has upheld 2 reviews from the 29 finalised cases where the OPCC were the Relevant Review Body (RRB). The OPCC believe this demonstrates that the public can have confidence in the process by which complaints against the police are handled by the Suffolk Constabulary Professional Standards Department.

More Information

More information on the performance of Suffolk Constabulary in relation to complaints and reviews can be found within the Complaints and Professional Standards report, which is presented to the Accountability and Performance Panel, and published within the OPCC website.
